Respectfulty presents his acknowledge ments to those who have heretofore expended to him their patronage, and he copes that the skill and experience which the past six years of constant Practice has enabled him to obtain, will merit a continuance of their favor, and the patronage of all those desiring services in his profession. In justification of his ability to render enter satisfaction, he would but call attention to the numerous fall and part sets of artificial teeth which he has inserted in this vicinity—the beauty, utility, and life-like appearance of which he flatters himself cannot be excelled. The difficulty heretofore experienced by the profession, in fitting full sets so that they may be useful and comfortable, he has overcome at the expense of no inconsiderable perseverance and experiment. Those who are in need of such may rost assured that they can be furnished with these useful organs that will enable them to masucate their food with the facility experienced only by those who have good Teeth. All other operations in the department of Deutistry, performed in a manuer that experience and care alone will enable one to do. Terms invariably cast when he work is com-pleted.
